

CODE OF ETHICS

It shall be considered unprofessional and inconsistent with honorable and dignified conduct and contrary to the public interest for any member of the New York State Association of Professional Land Surveyors:

1. To act for his client or for his employer otherwise than as a faithful agent or trustee.
2. To accept remuneration for services rendered other than from his client or his employer.
3. To invite or submit priced proposals under conditions that constitute price competition for professional services.
4. To attempt to supplant another Land Surveyor in a particular engagement after definite steps have been taken toward his employment.
5. To attempt to injure, falsely or maliciously, the professional reputation, business, or employment position of another Land Surveyor.
6. To review the work of another Land Surveyor for the same client, except with the knowledge of such Land Surveyor, unless such Land Surveyor's engagement on the work which is subject to review has been terminated.
7. To advertise Land Surveying services in self-laudatory language, or in any other manner derogatory to the dignity of the profession.
8. To use the advantages of a salaried position to compete unfairly with other Land Surveyors.
9. To exert undue influence or to offer, solicit or accept compensation for the purpose of affecting negotiation for any Land Surveying engagement.
10. To act in any manner derogatory to the honor, integrity or dignity of the Land Surveying profession.
